

Scheduling Module - Employee

Description: In this topic, the user will learn how to use the scheduling module as an employee for services provided for clients and programs. The schedule is view only and serves as a reminder for scheduled shifts. Users cannot clock in or out through the schedule. Please use the normal process to clock in and out for a shift. In the scheduling module employees can do the following:

- View their shifts, even if they work for multiple clients and programs.
- Offer their shift and find someone to claim (pick up) the shift
- Claim (pick up) additional shifts
- Create an availability template for the supervisor
- Receive scheduling notifications

*Please note: The DCI scheduling module is used by some organizations. Please contact a supervisor or employer regarding usage.

Role Required: Employee (base user)

View Schedule - Web Portal

The supervisor or employer will create the employee's schedule. After the schedule has been created it will be published and will be viewable.

1. Log in to personal profile
2. Click Home on the main menu
3. Click Schedules on the submenu
4. View schedule details on the Your Schedule tab

Schedule Details

- The scheduling module displays the current week's schedule listed by all active service accounts
- To view a different week, use the arrows or the calendar icon.
- View the schedule for Today, by Day, or by Week.
- To see a detailed view of the current day's scheduled shifts, click "Today."
- Under the date, two numbers are listed (i.e., 8/12)
 - The first number is the total number of hours worked based on pending and approved punches
 - The second number is how many total hours are scheduled for the day
- Each shift will display the start and end time, total hours, and the client or program name, if applicable.
- Scheduled Shifts (published) will appear in light blue
- On Call Shifts (residential and day program only) will appear in dark blue
- Offered Shifts will appear in yellow
- My Offered Shifts (shifts the user has offered for others to pick up) will appear in red
- Click the Printer icon to print the schedule in a calendar or list format
- Schedule notifications may be received based on organization settings and include:
 - The schedule has been published
 - If changes are made to the schedule and it is re-published

View Schedule - Mobile App

The supervisor or employer will create the employee's schedule. After the schedule has been created it will be published and will be viewable. No actions can be taken in the mobile app. The schedule is view only.

1. Log in to personal profile
2. Click the Menu icon (hamburger menu) in the upper left corner
3. Click Schedules on the menu

4. View the schedule in a list format by week, today, or offered shifts with the following information included for each shift:
 - a. Day
 - b. Service Date
 - c. Start Time
 - d. End Time
 - e. Employee Name
 - f. Account Type
 - g. Service Code
 - h. Hours
 - i. Status (Pending, Scheduled, Rejected, Offered, On-Call (residential program only))

Offer Shift

If the employee is unable to work a scheduled shift, they can offer the shift for another employee to claim (pick up). The offered shift is only available for employees with active service accounts for the client or program to claim.

*Please note: Schedule swapping is not permitted by all organizations. Please contact a supervisor or employer to verify utilization.

1. Log in to personal profile
2. Click Home on the main menu
3. Click Schedules on the submenu
4. Click the shift to offer to open the view schedule form wizard
5. Click Offer Shift
6. Click Yes on the confirmation alert window
7. The offered shift will turn red on the calendar and will be available for employees with active service accounts for the client or program to claim
 - a. When another employee claims the offered shift, a supervisor or employer will review the schedule swap request and approve or reject it.
 - i. If the schedule swap is approved, the offered shift will no longer appear on the schedule of the employee who offered it.
 - ii. If no one claims the offered shift or the supervisor rejects the schedule swap, it will be added back to the original employee's schedule and they will be responsible for working the shift.
 - iii. When the supervisor or employer has completed the review, the employee will receive a notification (if enabled by the organization).

Create Availability Template

Users can create an availability template in DCI so the supervisor is aware of when they can work. Availability templates can be created for up to thirteen weeks and must be renewed when they have reached their end date. Availability templates are created for a set of days for which the user has the same availability. For example, if the employee is only available from 6 AM to 6 PM on weekdays, but all day on weekends, two different availability templates must be created. Employees can have multiple availability templates.

*Please note: Availability templates are not used by all organizations. Contact a supervisor or employer to learn more about availability templates.

1. Log in to personal profile
2. Click Home on the main menu
3. Click Availability on the submenu
4. Click Actions
5. Select Create Template from the drop-down menu
6. Complete the Create Template form wizard
 - a. Template Name - Create a name for this template
 - b. Time - Select the available Start and End Times of the day

 - ii. The availability template will turn red if it is rejected and will update to Rejected

Authorization Check

Hourly employees can check if there are enough authorization units and an existing authorization for future service dates. When running an authorization check, the system will alert the employee if the shift:

- Results in overtime
- Overlaps with a published schedule entry
- Exceeds the authorization balance
- Is outside of the authorization dates

Run an Authorization Check

1. Log in to personal profile
2. Click Home on the main menu
3. Click Entries on the submenu
4. Click Actions
5. Select Authorization Check from the drop-down menu
6. Complete the form wizard for the proposed shift
7. Click Verify
8. If the shift passes all the above-listed rules, a Green Check Mark will appear in the alert box and it will state "Active Authorization and units available for this entry.". If the shift violates any of the above-listed rules, a Red X will appear in the alert box.
