

Why does the mobile app ask me to share my location information?

---

One of the requirements of EVV is the location where the service is provided. The DCI mobile app only records your location at clock in and clock out to be EVV compliant. If you do not allow DCI access to your location information, you will not be able to clock in and out using the mobile app. DCI does not track your location.

Related articles

- What is a pre-authorization hold?
- What are the password requirements in DCI?
- Password Reset
- What is the difference between Service Provider \(SP\) mode and Fiscal Intermediary \(FI\) mode?
- Authorization Remaining Balances as Time in the Mobile App