Where does the cost center on a payroll entry come from?

The cost center on a payroll entry comes from the service account. To enter time in DCI, the employee must have a service account linking them to the client or program. When the employee enters time, payroll and billing entries are created which are linked to the cost center information in the service account.

Related articles

- Group Service - Supervisor Guide
- System Set-Up - Admin Guide
- Employee Service Accounts vs. Client Service Accounts
- Where does the cost center on a payroll entry come from?
- Where does the pay rate on a payroll entry come from?