

What is a payroll entry?

A payroll entry is generated as a debit entry that will be deducted from the system when a time entry is approved, and payroll is processed. Payroll entries that have been batched and processed can be used to create payroll files for the organization, which can be used to create paychecks.

Related articles

- Payroll Module - Admin Guide
- What does the Quick Batch button in the Payroll Module do?
- Where does the cost center on a payroll entry come from?
- What is a payroll entry?
- What are previously paid entries?